GPO Box 1547, Hobart TAS 7001

Important information

Use this form to request information about a super account following the breakdown of a marriage or de facto relationship, or to enter into a super agreement.

This form is also known as a Form 6 declaration and super information request. If you make a false or misleading statement in a declaration you may be subject to penalties.

Before you complete this form, make sure you read our Super and family law fact sheet.

We'll provide the following information:

- account details including date joined fund and eligible service period
- estimated valuation at the date we receive this application, unless you specify a different date/s in section 5
- preservation and tax components.

We aren't allowed to tell members if their spouse or former spouse has asked for information about their super, and we won't provide either party with information relating to their former spouse's address or contact details.
